Monday, September 16th, 7 pm
Slam poets, lyricists, rappers, and first-time writers of all types are all invited to join us for a monthly poetry workshop for teens on the second Monday of every month. This will be a supportive environment for writers of all skill levels--no prior experience needed!

FOR SENIORS

Should I Stay or Should I Go?

Tuesday, September 17th, 11 am
Should I stay in my home for the long term, or should I look at other options? Seniors and those over 60 are asking themselves this important question. Joe McParland, of Helping Hands Community Partners, has over ten years experience with seniors who are in the process of deciding whether to "age in place" or consider other options. Joe will talk about all the options available for those living in Plymouth.

Thursday, September 19th, 7 pm
The Moon with Sarah Noble
Participants can listen to the podcast with us in person at 7 pm or on their own. Discussion will take place at 7:30 pm. At home participants will be able to join us on Facebook Live.

INSTRUCTION SESSION

Find Your Next Favorite Book: Using the NovelList Database*

Friday, September 20th, 2:30 pm
Join the Reference Department for a reader's advisory course using the Library's NovelList database. This session will provide an overview of NovelList, and will include a discussion on how the resource can offer reading recommendations for readers of all genres. By exploring NovelList during this session, participants will get hands-on experience looking for new books based on their own specific reading interests.

Books at Brunch

Saturday, September 21st, 11 am
Underground: A Human History of the Worlds Beneath Our Feet by Will Hunt
Join us for a discussion of this nonfiction title with light brunch fare served. Copies of the book are available one month prior to the meeting at the Circulation Desk.

FOR CHILDREN 6 & UP Meet Delilah*

Saturday, September 21st, 1-2 pm
Presented by the Whale and Dolphin Conservation
Get the chance to go inside Delilah, a real-sized inflatable North Atlantic right whale! Her measurements are based on a real whale who lived along the East coast in the US and Canada. Learn about how important whales are to the health of our oceans and what we can do to save them. This event has been developed with a donation from the Jen Kane Scholarship and Charitable Trust which provides scholarships, endowments and donations to charitable foundations in memory of Jen Kane, a Plymouth native who lost her life in the World Trade Center on September 11th.

FOR TEENS, AGES 13-18

Dungeons & Dragons Club*

Monday, September 30th, 6-8 pm
The PPL will be hosting two sessions of Dungeons & Dragons per month. Tonight's session will be a two-hour campaign for teens ages 13 to 18. The Tuesday afternoon session, beginning October 1st, will be a one-hour campaign for kids ages 8 to 12. At our first meeting, we will be talking about how Dungeons & Dragons works, designing our characters and introducing our very first adventure. Players will use dice, simple math and teamwork to navigate through an epic tabletop adventure together over the course of several sessions, so ongoing participation in our monthly meetings is highly recommended.
